

The Broncobots Bulletin.

Open House

Mark your calendars for this upcoming Sunday, March 12 from 2-4 pm for the R-7 Alliance Open House! The Broncobots, along with Team Driven, and Team Titanium will all reveal their robots in their respective shops. This will be the last time the R-7 Alliance will be able to host the Open House on the same campus. The shops are all located at Lee's Summit High School off of Blue Parkway and Browning Avenue.

See you soon!

This is our last edition of the Broncobots Bulletin for the season as we ramp up for competitions! You can still stay up to date on everything Broncobots, as there is plenty more to come! You can find us on Facebook, Instagram, and Twitter if you would like to follow along. Thank you so much for your support of the team and our Newsletter, it's been a blast. Go Broncobots!

This Week @ The Shop

This week, the Broncobots hit another significant milestone as we now have a fully functional robot! However, this doesn't mean that the robot is finished as there's still plenty of work to do on optimizing and getting the robot ready for competitions!
